POSITION DESCRIPTION:

This intern position will provide opportunity to work on wildlife habitat improvement across Northeast Montana. Position will be under the guidance of area wildlife biologists and wildlife management technicians across FWP Region 6. The position is focused on implementing activities to improve Habitat Quality in Western Big Game Winter Ranges and Migration Corridors in Northeast Montana. Activities include fence modification, fence removal, weed control measures, reseeding native plant species, and ground truthing predicted migration corridors. Additionally, the position will assist in maintenance and improvement activities on FWP's Wildlife Management Areas across Region 6. Activities include fencing, weed control, mowing, shrub planting, and shrub thinning. There are opportunities to be involved in other wildlife work across the region including wildlife surveys, as well as being a part of a collaborative work environment with partnering agencies, conservation organizations and landowners.

SKILLS, ABILITIES, KNOWLEDGE NEEDED (EDUCATION; UNDERGRAD/GRAD LEVEL, SUGGESTED/REQUIRED MAJORS):

Applicant must be a college student enrolled in Range Management, Wildlife & Fisheries Biology/Management, Outdoor Recreation Management or other outdoor/wildlife related curriculum in order to be considered. Past wildlife and habitat management or hunter access program experience is not necessary, but a willingness to learn these practices is expected. Applicant should have at least some past experience with equipment such as manual and power post-holing tools, fencing tools, GPS units and maps, shovels, picks, weed eaters and other types of landscaping-type tools, sprayers, all-terrain vehicles, driving and backing pull-type trailers, and driving manual and automatic transmission 4WD pickups. Applicant should have some basic computer skills. Applicant should be comfortable working outdoors in varying weather conditions. Applicant should be very comfortable working with people, especially landowners, staff from other natural resource management agencies and students/youth. Applicant should have a valid driver's license.
